Dr. Kaye Lindsey
Fifth Episcopal District WMS President

After 40 years, Dr. Kaye Lindsey retired from State Farm Insurance Company as Operations Vice President for the State of California. She was responsible for an executive team and over 8,000 employees.

Dr. Lindsey earned a degree in Business Management from Pacific Christina College and a law degree from Western State University of Law. She is a certified Executive Coach and motivational speaker. She has her Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) insurance designation and is a graduate of the Wharton Executive Business Program at Penn State University. She has been featured in numerous magazines including Ebody and Working Women. Currently, Dr. Lindsey serves on the USC-CMCE Board in Los Angeles and is treasurer for a local women’s organization. She is also an avid golfer, reader and exercise enthusiast.

Dr. Lindsey has served on the local and conference levels of the First, Fourth and Fifth Episcopal Districts of the AME Church as a WMS President, and First Lady. She is currently the First Lady of the Los Angeles South- Las Vegas District.

Dr. Kaye, as she is called by her friends, is a spiritual leader and missionary that believes in collaboration; growth and development of others; and giving back to the community. She is a firm believer that “We can do all things through Christ who gives us strength (Philippians 4:13).

Dr. Kaye’s husband is Presiding Elder Roosevelt Lindsey, Jr., of the Los Angeles South-Las Vegas District. They have been married 48 years and have a daughter, Daphney Lindsey-Steele and two grandchildren, Kayla and Marcus.
