CHALLENGE: WALK IN THE VISION! TALK OF IT OFTEN! LET IT BE!

Episcopal Greeting

March 10, 2020

Praise the Lord, Saints!

Can you imagine the audacity of beginning the Quadrennial with a challenge to the Fifth Episcopal District of the African Methodist Episcopal Church to walk in your destiny as the Holy Nation the Lord is calling you to be? And equally as phenomenal was your willingness to take on the challenge. With that, we were off!

During our First Season (Year), we took time to attend to old wounds, some of which were self-inflicted. We forgave ourselves, we forgave each other, and we accepted the absolution that comes by faith in what God accomplished on our behalf through His Son, Jesus Christ. By the Year's end, we could revel in the assurance that "the joy of the Lord is our strength."

Once the fellowship was restored, we set about the arduous task of "restoring Temple order." This was a Season of teaching and of training; a time for role/duty clarification; and above all, it was a time to show proper regard for "the Holy!" - holy things; holy places; holy spaces; and each other since each of us is holy unto the Lord.

The Lord showed favor upon our efforts toward unity with an outpouring of the of the Holy Spirit as we gathered in an Epiphany Institute in Glendale, Arizona. That assembly, in one place, on one accord, opened the door to Pentecost – a Season of the manifestation of the Holy Spirit through miracles, signs and wonders! True to His word, the Lord added to the Church those whom He deemed would be saved. And for each new soul added to the Kingdom, we rang the bell!

And now, in the Season of Kingdomtide, we find that the "time" is anything but "ordinary!" The times are "extraordinary!" Yet, in the waning weeks of the Quadrennial, we bring to bear all that the Lord has done for us, to us, and through us. With renewed fervency, we take on our role as His emissaries and ambassadors to our generation.

It has been quite a journey! We are not what we used to be. We are not what we will be. But thanks be to God, for the change He has made in each of us!

Hallelujah and Amen!

O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing #1

*O for a thousand tongues to sing My great Redeemer's praise,
The glories of my God and King, The triumphs of His grace!*

*My gracious Master and my God, Assist me to proclaim,
To spread thro' all the earth abroad The honors of Thy name.*

*Jesus! the name that charms our fears, That bids our sorrows cease;
'Tis music in the foulest clean; His blood availed for me.*

*He breaks the power of canceled sin, He sets the prisoner free;
His blood can make the foulest clean; His blood availed for me.*

*He speaks and listening to His voice, New life the dead receive;
The mournful, broken hearts rejoice; The humble poor believe.*

*Hear Him, ye deaf; His praise, ye dumb, Your loosened tongues employ;
Ye blind, behold your Savior come; And leap, ye lame, for joy. Amen.*

THE CALL TO WORSHIP

Rev. Carey Anderson
Pacific Northwest Annual Conference

Minister: I was glad when they said unto me, "Let us go to the house of the Lord!" Our feet shall stand within thy gate, O Jerusalem!

People: For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

Minister: Because of the house of the Lord our God, I will seek thy good.

People: Those that be planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God.

Minister: Blessed are they that dwell in the Thy house, Lord, I have loved thy habilitation, the place where Thy honor dwelleth.

People: For the Lord is in His holy temple, let all the earth keep silence before Him.

Minister: Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my Rock and my Redeemer:

All: O sing unto the Lord a new song, for He has done marvelous things! Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all the earth, sing praises.

Glorious Things of Thee Are Spoken #521

*Glorious things of thee are spoken, Zion, city of our God!
He, whose word cannot be broken, Formed thee for His own abode.
On the Rock of Ages founded, What can shake thy sure repose?
With salvation's walls surrounded, Thou mayst smile at all thy foes.*

*See, the streams of living waters, Springing from eternal love,
Well supply thy sons and daughters, And all fear of want remove:
Who can faint while such a river Ever flows their thirst assuage?
Grace which, like the Lord, the giver, Never fails from age to age.*

*Round each habitation hovering, See the cloud and fire appear,
For a glory and a covering, Showing that the Lord is near!
Glorious things of thee are spoken, Zion, city of our God;
He, whose word cannot be broken, Formed thee for His own abode.*

What a Friend We Have in Jesus #323

What a friend we have I Jesus, All our sins and griefs to bear!

What a privilege to carry Everything to God in prayer!

O what peace we often forfeit, O what needless pain we bear,

All because we do not carry Everything to God in prayer!

Have we trials and temptation? Is there trouble anywhere?

We should never be discouraged; Take it to the Lord in prayer.

Can we find a friend so faithful Who will all our sorrows share?

Jesus knows our every weakness; Take it to the Lord in prayer.

Are we weak and heavy laden, Cumbered with a load of care?

Precious Savior, still our refuge: Take it to the Lord in prayer.

Do thy friends despise, forsake thee? Take it to the Lord in prayer!

In His arms he'll take and shield thee; Thou wilt find a solace there.

PRAYER

PRAYER RESPONSE

Be Still, My Soul #426

Be still, my soul: the Lord is on thy side; Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain;

Leave to thy God to order and provide; In every change He faithful will remain.
